

Presented by

© <https://mytripnavi.com/>

HAFEN

Motzstraße 19, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Bars

Located in the heart of Schöneberg's gay district, HAFEN remains a trendy and popular gay landmark with regular events, parties and quiz shows. Casual atmosphere and cool staff are among its selling points. The bar gets extra cult status for allegedly being visited by the real life Sally Bowles back in those days of cabaret.

Features: Bar Music

Blond

Motzstraße 28, 10777 Berlin, Germany,
Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz,
Wittenbergplatz

Bars

Friendly gay bar and casual neighbourhood hangout. Fairly small inside but there's a large seating area outside. Blond attracts a mixed, young crowd. Open long hours, from breakfast to cocktails and beyond. Karaoke on Tuesday nights. Jukebox allows you to pick your favorite pop tunes.

Features: Bar Free Wi-Fi Karaoke Music Restaurant

Heile Welt

Motzstraße 5, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Bars

Gay café bar & lounge, located right next to the Nollendorfplatz train station. Popular with both locals and tourists. This is one of the classier gay bars in Berlin - doesn't have to be whips and chains every night. Heile Welt is a good place to go on a date. Also great for pre-clubbing. You'll be able to hear your conversation over the music.

Features: Bar Cafe Music

Prinzknecht

Fuggerstraße 33, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Wittenbergplatz,
Nollendorfplatz

Bars

"Come as strangers, leave as friends" is the motto at Prinzknecht. The large, brick-walled bar is popular with a slightly more mature men - an interesting mix of blue collar, showbiz and leather-friendly crowd. Always busy the weekend. Located next to Club Connection and Mutschmann's.

Features: Bar Cruise / Fetish Dark Room Internet Access Music

TABASCO Bar

Fuggerstraße 3, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz,

Wittenbergplatz

Bars

"Where boys meet men and men meet boys." TABASCO is one of the oldest gay bars in Berlin.

Inside, you'll find a host of friendly and welcoming staff, as well as friendly customers. Perfect as a bar-hopping stop since Tabasco is located just opposite Blond bar.

Features:BarMusic

Dreizehn

Welserstraße 27, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Wittenbergplatz

Bars

A cosy alternative to the loud gay bars in Berlin. We like the relaxed, warm atmosphere of Dreizehn (13). This pub-style gay bar has plenty of beer, wine, spirits and more on offer. Old-fashioned in style, it does tend to attract a more mature guys. Happy hour 2pm-5pm, Monday to Friday only.

Features:BarDancingMusic

K6

Kleiststraße 6, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Bars

Local gay bar with dance floor and karaoke. Music ranges from German pop and Schlager. Happy hour every day. Located 500 metres from KaDeWe department store.

Features:BarDancingKaraokeMusic

Tramp's

Eisenacher Straße 6, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Mehringdamm

Bars

Tramp's is very much a friendly local gay hangout bar and one of the few that is open 24 hours a day. Located in the Schöneberg gay village, a short walk from TOM's Bar, Romeo & Romeo, etc.

Features:BarMusic

Cafe Neues Ufer

Hauptstraße 157, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Mehringdamm; Bus 19, N4, N46: Bergmannstraße

Bars

Cafe Neues Ufer is one of Berlin's oldest gay bars in Berlin. Located in Schöneberg, this bar was a frequent hangout for David Bowie and is now both a cafe and bar.

Features:BarKaraokeMusic

Monster Ronson's Ichiban Karaoke

Warschauer Str. 34, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Kottbusser Tor - enter on Dresdner Straße

Bars

Monster Ronson's Ichiban Karaoke is a gay karaoke bar and club, that hosts various group events every Friday and Saturday. Private Karaoke cabins are also available for rent. Check out their website for more information.

Features: Bar Music

Bar Zum Schmutzigen Hobby

Revaler Str. 99, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Hermannplatz
Bars

Bar Zum Schmutzigen Hobby is a gay bar that sits in the place of an old fire station. This bar is intimate and is the perfect place to meet and mingle with people, as it is often very busy. They have a dance every Wednesday night and a 90s party every Thursday.

Features: Bar Music

Curly Bar

Adolfstraße 17, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Kottbusser Tor, Görlitzer Bahnhof; N29 Adalbertstraße, Oranienstraße

Bars

Curly Bar is a gay cafe and bar that used to exhibit works of up-and-coming queer artists, as well as host various events including a queer knitting club.

The bar closed in September of 2022, but reopened after 11 months on August 2023. The atmosphere is relaxed and friendly, perfect for grabbing a nightcap.

Features: Bar Dancing Music

Privatleben Bar

Rhinower Str. 12, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Mehringdamm
Bars

Cocktails fixed up in a snug, red-hued space with a hip vibe & sidewalk seating. Everybody is welcome.

Features: Bar Music

Der Neue Oldtimer

Lietzenburger Straße, 10789 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Rosa-Luxemburg-Platz, Rosenthaler Platz

Bars

Der Neue Oldtimer is located north of Fuggerstraße, right at the edge of Berlin's gay Schöneberg district. The quaint bar opened in 1987 and has been serving free-flowing drinks and excellent hospitality for over 30 years.

With great music and ambience, it's a perfect place for a nightcap.

Features: Bar Cafe Dancing Karaoke Live music Music Restaurant

Rauschgold

Mehringdamm 62, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: S: Greifswalder Straße
Bars

Small, funky bar in Kreuzberg with a little stage for big personalities in drag who host dancing, karaoke and drag shows. Music at Rauschgold ranges from pop, Schlager to disco. A fun, liberated place, and the drinks are inexpensive. Very popular on weekends. Mixed crowd. Located within easy reach of dance club SchwuZ.

Features: Bar Music

BarbieBar

Mehringdamm 77, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: S: Hackescher Markt
Bars

Fun, camp bar that takes its pink fetish to the extreme with all the Barbie dolls interior. BarbieBar serves homemade cakes, cookies and cocktails. Closed on Sundays and Mondays.

Features: Bar Karaoke Music Restaurant

Möbel-Olfe

Reichenberger Straße 177, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U2: Senefelderplatz;
Tram: Marienburger Straße,
Hufelandstraße, Prenzlauer Allee
Bars

Once a furniture store, Möbel-Olfe offers a very hip bar experience with interesting decor designed by well-known Berlin artists. The place draws an eclectic mix of crowd, but Thursdays are very gay and trendy. On Fridays, Olfe opens its doors for trans and non-binary guests. Drinks are reasonable, and the music leans towards indie and alternative. Quirky vibe and friendly, cosy atmosphere. Closed on Mondays.

Features: Bar Music

Silver Future

Weserstraße 206, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Rosenthaler Platz
Bars

This fun, lively bar in Berlin-Neukölln welcomes "kings, queens and criminal queers" of Berlin and beyond. Silver Future serves drinks and food 6 days a week and hosts regular exhibitions about queer culture and LGBT-related events.

Features: Bar Cafe Music Restaurant

Roses Bar

Oranienstraße 187, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Roses here aren't red, they're very pink! This is the campest gay bar in Kreuzberg with lots of fun and excitement. Lively, mixed crowd with 80's to 90's music that wouldn't work anywhere else. Cheap drinks, friendly bartenders, packed at night. A favorite stop for pre- or post-clubbing. Located near Möbel-Olfe bar.

Features: Bar Music

Melitta Sundström

Mehringdamm 61, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Popular show bar & LGBT venue. Melitta Sundström boasts an array of entertainment every week, from comedy nights to cabaret performers. Good food and drinks that can be enjoyed on the ice large terrace. Check out their website for further details of forthcoming events.

Features: Bar Music

Capture Bar

Wühlischstraße 32, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Capture Bar, located near the Alte Turnhalle, is a neighborhood gay bar. Capture has a great rotation of DJs that will have you dancing the night away, as well as various events like an exhibition collage and dance parties.

Betty F Bar

Mulackstraße 13, Berlin, Germany

Bars

A small basement gay bar in Berlin Mitte, with themed nights, DJ sets, and other live entertainment. Very busy on weekends.

FLAX

Chodowieckistraße 41, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Popular with youngsters, FLAX is café & cocktail bar with house music. Regular themed nights with karaoke and happy hours. Brunch buffet on Sundays from 10am-5pm. Closed on Mondays.

The Coven

Kleine Präsidentenstraße 3, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Stylish gay bar, designed by Berlin-based Architect, Thilo Reich, with a casual yet sophisticated atmosphere. The Coven serves a premium drinks and cocktails, with great music and friendly service. Located one of the most beautiful spots in Berlin Mitte, close to Berlin 'Dom', the Museum Island and Monbijou Park.

Marienhof

Marienburger Straße 7, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Gay café, bar & lounge with a lively, club-like environment. Marienhof hosts regular parties and colourful events with DJ's. Located in the trendy Prenzlauer Berg District. Busiest on Friday nights. Closed on Sundays.

Bar Saint Jean

Ziegelstraße 29, 10117 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Opened in 2013, Bar Saint Jean is one of the most popular meeting places for gay men in Berlin-Mitte. This small, underground, French-owned bar features simple, minimalist décor and specialises in high-end long drinks and cocktails. Hosts occasional DJ nights.

Bärenhöhle

Schönhauser Allee 90, Berlin, Germany

Bars

Cosy, friendly bar for bears and friends since 1999. Bärenhöhle plays a mix of pop music from the 1970's onwards. All ages and sizes are welcome. Free WiFi available. Half-priced drinks on Wednesdays until midnight.

Begine

Potsdamer Straße 139, Berlin, Germany

Lesbian Bars

Exclusively for women. Begine is a lesbian bar but foremost, a cultural centre. Originally established in 1986 to provide a meeting place for women in refuge, Begine is now a café that hosts live music, art exhibitions, parties, concerts, cabaret, educational events and more. Located around Potsdamer Straße, between the historic gay and lesbian neighbourhood around Winterfeldplatz and the trendy Kreuzberg. Check their website for more details of upcoming events and hours.

Features: Bar culture Live music

Himmelreich Cafe

Simon-Dach-Straße 36, Berlin, Germany

Lesbian Bars

The only lesbian bar on Simon-Dach street in Berlin's Friedrichshain district, an area best-known for thriving nightlife and alternative scene. Himmelreich cafe bar offers a sophisticated atmosphere. Straight people are welcome but the venue also hosts LGBT-specific nights such as Tuesday's Women's Lounge which caters to a lesbian crowd. See their Facebook page for more information.

Features: Bar Music

Girls Town

Obentrautstraße 19-21, Berlin, Germany

Lesbian Bars

Girls Town is a lesbian party in Berlin and other cities in Germany. The parties in Berlin happen at different clubs, including Sage Beach, The Haubentaucher, and the SO36.

Girls Town sees themselves as a shelter for lesbians, inter-, trans- and bisexual females (LGBT+). Straight friends are welcome; however, their bouncers have the right to deny access to males who do not seem appropriate. Since 2006, Girls Town has held regular parties in Berlin. In 2023, they added Hamburg and Vienna to the cities they host their parties. Check Girls Town's website to stay updated about their next events. Admission usually starts at 15€.

Features:BarDancingMusic

B:East Party

Wiesenweg 1-4, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Warschauer Straße; S: Ostbahnhof; Bus 240: Franz-Mehring-Platz
Dance Clubs

Launched in August 2015, B:East is a large monthly techno dance party for gays and friends, taking place at the best clubbing venues in Berlin. Photos and details about upcoming parties can be found on their website or Facebook page.

Features:BarDancingMusic

Berghain Club & Panorama Bar

Am Wriezener Bahnhof, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Heinrich-Heine Straße
Dance Clubs

One of the best dance clubs in Europe, located in a former power plant in East Berlin, Berghain has become an epicentre for club-goers from around the world, with its a huge main floor, superb sound system and amazing lineup of DJ's who pump out the best music. Upstairs is the Panorama Bar which has a slightly more civilised vibe and excellent city view. (Laboratory, a men-only sex club, is a separate venue in the basement with its own entrance and queue.) Berghain started out as a gay club but now attracts a mixed crowd. Some say that being gay, looking mid 20's or older and wearing darker colours (nothing too flashy) will improve your chances of entry. Arriving drunk are definite no-no's. But once you're in, the experience is amazing. Read more about how to get into the Berghain here.

Features:BarDancingMusic

Revolver Party @ KitKatClub

Köpenicker Straße 76, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Kottbusser Tor, Görlitzer Bahnhof

Dance Clubs

Established by Oliver and Gary, Revolver Party takes place every month, featuring the best local and international DJ's, go-go dancers and performers. The party is hosted by KitKatClub, the venue for Berlin's infamous HustlaBall "Peepshow". The crowd is mostly gay men, but everyone is welcome. No dress code. Free coat check available.

Features:BarDancingMusic

Connection Club

Fuggerstraße 33, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Rathaus Neukölln

Dance Clubs

Popular weekend techno/house dance club with a dark cruising basement play area called the 'Twilight Zone'. Located next door to Prinzknecht bar (same owners). Connection Club gets busy and very cruisy after midnight. Be sure to walk around every floor and make at least a 'connection' or two. Mainly older men but there's plenty of young guys around, too.

Features: Bar Dancing Dark Room Music

PROPAGANDA Party

various venues, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Kottbusser Tor; Night Bus: Adalbertstraße/Oranienstraße

Dance Clubs

Propaganda is one of the most popular gay dance parties in Berlin, with 1000+ attendees in every event. Pop, vocal house, electro music, along with special performances and gorgeous go-go dancers. Check the website for upcoming events and dates. You can order tickets online.

Features: Bar Dancing Music

Gayhane @ SO36

Oranienstraße 190, Berlin, Germany

Dance Clubs

Large concert venue & nightclub in Kreuzberg district. This non-profit club hosts concerts, dance parties and other cultural events. Gayhane takes place on the last Saturday of each month, attracting a young mixed crowd of gays, lesbians, transgenders & friends. Music ranges from mainstream European to the latest Asian, Greek, Turkish, Arabic and Hebrew pop music tracks. SO36 also host a punk/rock music party every Sunday that tends to attract LGBT guys and girls. See their website for further details.

Features: Bar Dancing GoGo Show Music

SchwuZ

Rollbergstraße 26, Berlin, Germany

Dance Clubs

Another favourite with younger LGBTQ+ folks, SchwuZ is Berlin's largest queer club. Popular late-night gay dance party in Kreuzberg. SchwuZ takes place on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays. DJ's play a wide range of music. Drinks are reasonably priced. Entrance is cheaper before midnight.

Features: Bar Dancing Music

Cafe Fatal @ SO36

Oranienstraße 190, Berlin, Germany

Dance Clubs

Popular Sunday tea dance for gays, lesbians and friends. Cafe Fatal party starts with a ballroom until 10pm then turns to a disco, with DJ playing pop music hits and German Schlager.

Features: Bar Dancing Live music Music

Herrensauna

Köpenicker Straße 70, Berlin, Germany

Dance Clubs

Underground gay dance party in Berlin, with resident & guest DJs playing techno house music. Herrensauna takes place at various venues - usually at Tresor nightclub or RSO.BERLIN. Check their Facebook page for upcoming events.

Features: Bar Dancing Music

Suicide Club

*Warschauer Brücke, Revaler Straße 99
Zugang über, Berlin, Germany*

Dance Clubs

Suicide Club is a techno club in Berlin. Although it's not a gay club, it hosts regular gay events, including the iconic Chantals House of Shame. This is very much a late-night venue for people who like to party. It's located in Friedrichshain, one of the coolest and most gay-popular districts in Berlin. The famous Berghain is also in the same area. This part of former East Berlin is the heart of the city's alternative nightlife scene.

Features: Club

Chantals House of Shame

*Warschauer Brücke, Revaler Straße 99
Zugang über, 10245, Berlin, Germany*

Dance Clubs

Chantals House of Shame takes place every Thursday at Suicide Club. Having moved several times, it's now found a regular home. It's become one of the most famous and exciting gay club nights in Berlin. Expect top DJs and drag performances from some of the top queens in the city. If you're looking to party hard then Chantals House of Shame is the place to be. The party will still be going on at 7 am.

Features: club night drag

Lab-oratory @ Berghain

Am Wriezener Bahnhof, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Warschauer Straße; S: Ostbahnhof; Bus 240: Franz-Mehring-Platz
Cruise Clubs

'Anything goes' at this famous cruise club in the basement of an old East Berlin power station (which also houses the popular dance club Berghain and Panorama Bar). The men play hard. Lab-oratory is probably the most famous and notorious gay cruise club in the world. The industrial setting gives "The Lab" the right atmosphere to cruise and play with cages, slings, glory holes, dark rooms, alcoves, private cabins. Showers and hand basins are provided, along with paper towels, free condoms and lube. Change into your outfit on arrival (leather, sportswear, jockstrap, rubber, etc.). You will be given a bag for your other items. Check in your bag and a number will be written on your shoulder. This number is used to bill drinks at the bar. Some themed nights have dress codes. Happy hour on Friday nights. Check the website for upcoming events - they're usually sold out, so plan ahead.

*Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise /
FetishDark RoomMazeMusic*

Club Culture Houze

Görlitzer Straße 71, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Görlitzer Bahnhof
Cruise Clubs

If you think you've seen it all, Club Culture Houze may change your mind. This infamous place is a hedonistic playground for all your desires and fantasies. Shower rooms available. All genders are welcome here, but Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays are themed nights for gay men only. Regular themed events - check the website for details.

*Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise /
FetishDancingDark RoomMusicRelaxing
Cabins*

WOOF Berlin

Fuggerstraße 37, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Wittenbergplatz,
Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

Berlin's popular gay cruise bar for bears, hairy men, leathery guys, skinheads, daddies and admirers. WOOF hosts regular themed nights and special offers on drinks. Located close to everything gay in Schöneberg.

*Features:BarCruise / FetishDark
RoomMusic*

Triebwerk

Urbanstraße 64, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Hermannplatz
Cruise Clubs

This cruisy men-only gay cruise club is located in Kreuzberg. Your clothes must be left at the door on most nights. If you're shy, then go on one of the underwear or clothing-optional nights. Check Triebwerk's website for ongoing weekly themes. Closed on Mondays Thursdays.

*Features:BarCruise / FetishDark
RoomMusic*

New Action

Kleiststraße 35, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz
Cruise Clubs

Very cruisy gay cruise & fetish club with special parties on Sundays. New Action has strict dress codes: no cologne, no slippers or no Nazi/right-wing signs. Facilities include a darkroom, toys, sling, shower and play gear. There's also a cross! Condoms and lube available for free. Jeans are allowed only in combination with full skin gear (e.g. polo, bald or zero-copped). The club gets busy after 1am. Located in Schöneberg.

Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise / Fetish

KitKatClub

Köpenicker Straße 76, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Heinrich-Heine Straße

Cruise Clubs

Opened in 1994 by Austrian pornographic filmmaker Simon Thaur, KitKatClub is known for sexually uninhibited parties, techno & trance music and fetish & SM parties - all happening on 3 floors with an outdoor area and a pool. The club welcomes everyone - gay, straight and everything in between. There are strict dress codes (fetish, PVC & leather, uniforms, kinky, glitter & glamour, etc.). No ordinary street wear and no underwear. KitKatClub has tamed down a bit since its heyday but regularly hosts the popular gay Revolver Party.

Features: Adults-only Bar Cruise / Fetish Dancing Dark Room Music Swimming pool

Mutschmann's

Martin-Luther-Straße 19, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Wittenbergplatz, Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

Berlin's hottest gay fetish cruise club. Mutschmann's is geared towards men in leather, uniform and rubber. Every Wednesday, guys that are not into fetish clothing are also welcome, but pink and silk clothing are not acceptable! Expect hardcore action in the dark room and play area. Not for the faint-hearted. Special themed nights on occasions. Closed Sun-Tue.

Features: Adults-only Bar Cruise / Fetish Dark Room Music

Ficken 3000

Urbanstraße 70, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

You can probably guess what the name means in English, so be careful when you say this word in Germany. Ficken 3000 is a gay cruise club with bar and darkroom. Everyone is welcome, except guests who identify strictly as heterosexual. Located in gay Berlin Kreuzberg area. Open all night long, from 10pm.

Features: Adults-only Bar Cruise / Fetish Dark Room Music

BULL

Kleiststraße 35, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U6: Alt-Mariendorf ; Bus 181 (Porschestra)

Cruise Clubs

Small gay cruise & fetish bar in Schöneberg gay village. "No Women, No Drugs" is the policy here.

They have a bar, manned by international bartenders who can whip up different cocktails and serve you shots and long drinks. They also have a huge darkroom equipped with slings, glory holes and more. Open 24 hours day. Located directly opposite New Action.

Features: Bar Cruise / Fetish Music

Quälgeist

Lankwitzer Str. 42-43, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Frankfurter Tor

Cruise Clubs

Gay bar & club for fetish & SM fans in Berlin, with monthly themed events. Now at a new location. Check their website for a complete calendar of upcoming events.

Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise / Fetish

Große Freiheit 114

Boxhagener Straße 114, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: S: Schöneberg, Südkreuz
Cruise Clubs

Große Freiheit 114 is a gay cruise bar with backrooms and cabins, located in the gay Friedrichshain district. Regular event details are listed on their website.

Entrance is always free. Closed on Sundays and Mondays,

Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise / FetishDark RoomMusicRelaxing Cabins

Böse Buben

Sachsendamm 76-77, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

One of the most established gay fetish & cruise clubs in Berlin (opened in 1997) and a specialist in S&M themes. Now a club that caters to different fetishes including Fight-Wrestling, Sports and Sneaker Fetish Parties, classic cruising as well as other more experienced BDSM practices. Check out the club's website for the current events and entrance fees. Explore your fetish at Boese Buben and "Get what you need!" in a safe and sound environment.

Please play responsibly.

Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise / FetishDark RoomMusic

Scheune

Motzstraße 25, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

One of the most popular gay cruise clubs in Schöneberg district. Scheune hosts regular fetish themed parties - rubber, skinhead, jeans, uniform, you name it.

Sunday is the Naked Party with lots of hardcore action - visit Scheune's website for upcoming events.

Features:Adults-onlyBarCruise / FetishDark RoomMusic

The JAXX

Motzstraße 19, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Cruise Clubs

Gay cruise club in Schöneberg. Opened in 1995, The JAXX introduced one of the first sex cinemas to Berlin and has subsequently added private cabins, dark room and cruising areas to its facilities. The JAXX also has a shop that sells lube, condoms, adult toys, magazines, DVD's and more. Be warned: the club operates a strict door policy and not everyone gets in.

Features:Adults-onlyCruise / FetishDark RoomRelaxing CabinsShop

Duplexx

Martin-Luther-Straße 14, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: S,U: Schönhauser Allee
Cruise Clubs

Gay shop, video and cruising - all in one place. Located in Berlin's 'gayborhood', just around the corner from ArtHotel Connection.Monday is movie day. Happy hour on weekends. Duplexx has another location in Prenzlauer Berg district and branches in Munich, Stuttgart, Dresden.

Features:Adults-onlyCruise / FetishShop

XXL Berlin

Bornholmer Straße 7, Berlin, Germany

Cruise Clubs

Gay cruise club & cinema in Prenzlauer Berg district. XXL features video booths, a cruising area, private cabins, dark room, plus a DVD shop.Wednesday nights are cinema nights with 9€ admission. XXL also hosts monthly themed events including the popular 'Underwear and Naked Party' - check their website for schedule.

Features:Adults-onlyCruise / FetishDark RoomRelaxing Cabins

Der Boiler

Mehringdamm 34, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Mehringdamm
Saunas

Large gay sauna (1,500 m²) on 3 floors. Der Boiler features a steam room, Finnish sauna, whirlpool, lockers, dark room, private cabins, plus Apple Mac stations, massage & spa area. Free lockers.The bar & café with an outdoor terrace serves drinks, light meals, salads, sandwiches, coffee, beer, and more, all of which are reasonably priced. The staff are very friendly, welcoming, and good at their job of keeping the place clean.Der Boiler attracts a very diverse client base of all ages and body types. The relaxed environment makes it possible to visit just to socialise with friends.Discounts for students, early birds, and night owls. You may need to queue during party or festival weekends.

Features:BarInternet AccessJacuzzi / Hot PoolMassageRelaxing CabinsRestaurantSaunaSpaSteam room

Vabali Spa

Seydlitzstraße 6, 10557 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Saunas

Vabali is a Bali-style wellness resort that's a favorite relaxation spot for gay couples. The resort has a spacious, bright sauna with large windows that allow guests to take in the beautiful view.

There are also spa rooms that offer different massage treatments. Guests wouldn't grow hungry either with the Vabali restaurant offering a menu of balanced Asian and Mediterranean delicacies, as well as regional classics.

Liquidrom

Liquidrom, Möckernstr. 10, Berlin, 10963, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Saunas

Liquidrom is a sauna in Berlin famous for its dark, domed steam baths and underwater music. The sauna has a mixed-gendered clientele but is popular among couples, gay and straight alike.

In the primary dimmed dome pool, it is essential to wear swimsuits. However, nudity is the norm in other areas like the sauna rooms, while in all other zones, clothing is optional.

Centro Delfino - Schöneberg

Nollendorfstraße 20, Berlin, Germany

Massage

Centro Delfino offers massage & spa services for men in the Schöneberg gay district, as well as Charlottenburg, featuring three treatment rooms, plus a dry sauna. The range of treatments includes holistic full-body massages, Thai, sports, aroma oil massages and foot reflexology. The spa primarily targets the gay market, but everyone is welcome.

Features: MassageSauna

DDR Museum

Karl-Liebknecht-Str. 1, 10178, Berlin, Germany

Culture

One of our favorite cultural attractions in Berlin, the DDR Museum brings you face to face with life behind the Iron Curtain. The wall divided Germany from 1961 to 1989. Life in the former east was very different. People lived with less under the Soviet system, whereas those in the west enjoyed the high living standards of capitalism. Germany was split down the middle.

Don't miss the DDR Museum. It gives you a glimpse into a lost world - a world that only ended in the last three decades.

Features:museum

Schwules Museum *

Lützowstraße 73, Berlin, Germany

Culture

Founded in 1985, Berlin's Gay Museum has become Europe's most important permanent exhibitions of gay culture and history.

The archival holdings, numerous contributions to research and over thirty (mostly volunteer) staff make the Schwules Museum* one of the world's largest institutions for archiving, researching and communicating the history and culture of LGBTQI communities.

Changing exhibitions and events take diverse approaches to lesbian, gay, trans*, bisexual and queer biographies, themes and concepts in history, art and culture. Closed on Tuesdays.

Features:Theatre

Volksbühne

Linienstraße 227, 10178, Berlin, Germany

Culture

Volksbühne is a theatre in the heart of former East Berlin. It's known as the city's most iconic theatre. It hosts regular shows and events, including many queer performance artists. Many of the bigger productions will be staged with English subtitles. Check their website for more info about their program.

Volksbühne hosts many productions by a diverse array of artists. Their program is changing all the time.

Features:Barcinema

Kino International

Karl-marx-allee 33 10178, Berlin, Germany

Culture

Kino International is an arthouse cinema in former East Berlin. It was opened in the 1960s and emerged as a hub of the avant-garde, even though it was behind the Iron Curtain. It's the main venue for Berlin's huge Berlinale film festival each year.

The cinema is distinguished by its chic 1960s interior. You'll be greeted with sweeping city views from the bar. Kino International of hosts screenings of queer movies. It's quite a cultural landmark in Berlin.

Features:arts collective

Curated by Girls

Berlin, Germany

Culture

Curated by Girls is an art collective dedicated to female and queer artists. Male artists had numerous platforms to use, but there were few dedicated to women. Laetitia Dubeau had plugged the gap. Curated by Girls is an online art platform. It also runs an event program.

Check their website for more information about upcoming events. They also have a large Instagram presence.

Features:Art gallery

The Ballery

Nollendorfstraße 11, Berlin, Germany

Culture

The Ballery is an art gallery and art gallery based in Schöneberg, Berlin's vibrant gay district. It's a space that nurtures some of the most dynamic and experimental artists. Their exhibitions change regularly so check their website to see what's on.

A notable exhibition they hosted in 2019, Laurence Rasti – There Are No Homosexuals in Iran, explored the lives of gay Iranian refugees.

Spinnboden

Anklamer Straße, 10115 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Culture

Spinnboden - Archive for the Discovery and Preservation of Woman Love, or simply Spinnboden, is a project created by the lesbian group Homosexual Action West Berlin in 1973 for the purpose of archiving lesbian history.

Today, Spinnboden is Europe's oldest and largest lesbian archive. Spinnboden hosts events and bookclubs, and allows people to borrow their archives of books, magazines, and other materials to aid academic research.

Prinz Eisenherz Bookstore

Motzstraße 23, 10777 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Culture

Lovers of queer literature flock to Prinz Eisenherz Bookshop, which boasts a wide selection of queer books, magazines and DVDs. Founded in 1978 by gay movement activists, the bookstore has been providing recommendations and hosting exhibitions for the LGBTQ community in Berlin.

R&Co Berlin

Fuggerstraße 19, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Wittenbergplatz, Nollendorfplatz

Shops

Gay shop R&Co Berlin sells leather & rubber gear, handcuffs and other fetish SM toys. Also has rooms for rent, with comfortable beds, personal computer, DVD player and kitchen. Located in the heart of gay Berlin, steps away from the main gay bars, restaurants and the famous Ku'damm. Closed Sundays.

Features: Adults-only Cruise / Fetish Shop

BRUNOS Berlin

Maaßenstraße 14, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Shops

One of Berlin's biggest and best gay stores. BRUNOS specialises in underwear, loungewear and swimwear, with great discounts and bargains to be found during their regular sale events. You'll also find a large selection of DVD's, books, magazines, condoms, lubes, toys and more. Staff are very friendly and helpful. Changing room available. Closed on Sundays. Located in the main gay district - a short walk from the Nollendorfplatz metro station.

Features: Adults-only Shop

BOXER Berlin

Eisenacher Straße 11, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Shops

Berlin branch of the well-known Barcelona gay fetish shop. BOXER Berlin sells an extensive range of gorgeous leather, skin, rubber and sports outfits, very sexy underwear, adult toys & more, most of which are designed and made in Barcelona.

Features:Shop

Boyz-r-Us

Maaßenstraße 8, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U Nollendorfplatz

Shops

Gay-popular shop in Berlin, selling men's fashion including ES Collection, Addicted, Replay, Bikkembergs, etc. Located in the Schöneberg gay district. Closed on Sundays and Mondays.

Features:Shop

RubAddiction

Kalckreuthstraße 13, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Shops

Since 1992, RubAddiction has been specialising in handcrafted German-made fetish gear. The shop has an extensive range of latex and heavy rubber gear for men and women, plus various bondage and adult accessories. You can try before you buy. Online shopping available. Located 600 metres from Nollendorfplatz. Closed on Sundays.

17

Features:Shop

Butcherei Lindinger

Motzstraße 18, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U2: Eberswalder Straße

Shops

Supplier of an almost endless selection of gay fetish gear in leather, rubber, metal and neoprene plus adult gay toys, condoms, lubricants & grease, hoses, chains, hooks, pumps, etc. Expert, helpful staff on hand to offer advice before you buy. Closed on Sundays.

Features:Shop

Mister B

Motzstraße 22, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U2: Eberswalder Straße

Shops

Berlin branch of this popular European fetish chain, specialising in rubber and leather goods. You can buy toys, clothes, gifts and more here, or you can buy them online.

Features:Adults-only

GEAR Berlin

Kalckreuthstraße 13, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: Nollendorfplatz

Shops

This gay fetish clothing store has a huge range of leather and neoprene gear, hardcore tees, sports & urban outfits, adults toys and more. Brands include Nasty Pig, CellBlock 13, Rub Addiction, Adidas and Mr S Leather.

Features:Shop

SlingKing

Eisenacher Straße 115, Berlin, Germany

Shops

The name says it all. SlingKing sells an exclusive range of slings, harnesses, bondage accessories and restraints, collars, paddles and leather wear. You can also shop online.

Features:Shop

BLACKSTYLE

Seelower Straße 5, Berlin, Germany

Shops

Latex fetish store, stocking an astonishing range of BDSM-related products for men and women. Latex shorts, jackets, full body suits, codpieces, harnesses, latex masks, gloves, socks, rubber boots, etc. If latex is your thing, then BLACKSTYLE will excite the hell out of you. Helpful, friendly and knowledgeable staff. Products are available online, with worldwide shipping.

Features:Shop

Rubber Factory

Danziger Straße 52, Berlin, Germany

Shops

Rubber Factory has been providing high quality latex outfits for the gay community since 2002. Many of their products are made 'in-house' and can be customised - colour, size, etc. Open-minded staff have a huge amount of experience and are available for personal consultations.

Features:Shop

Leathers

Schliemannstraße 38, Berlin, Germany

Shops

Leathers stocks a huge range for unique, sexy, beautifully-made leather products (trousers, jackets, masks, jockstraps, harnesses, bondage gear, etc.). There's an online shop with worldwide shipping. Leathers hand-makes much of what they sell in house. Products can be made to order, based on your specific size and taste. If you want to have something custom-made, then call them to make an appointment.

Features:Shop

Wagner Berlin

Motzstrasse 32, Berlin, Germany

Shops

Wagner stocks a range of men's fashion gear, including fabulous ready-for-action cotton, leather-like underwear, tight tanks, muscle tops, fishnet tees, jockstraps and some pretty stylish hoodies and scarves. The shop is located in the heart of the Schöneberg gay district, close to Reizbar, Mutschmann's, etc. Closed on Sundays.

Features:Shop

EisenHerz

Motzstraße 23, Berlin, Germany

Shops

Gay bookstore EisenHertz in Schöneberg sells of a huge range of (mostly German language) LGBT books, comics and DVD's. Located between TOM's Bar and Scheune. Closed on Sundays.

Features:Shop

Romeo & Romeo

Motzstraße 20, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz

Restaurants

Gay cafe bar in the heart of Schöneberg gay district. Romeo & Romeo is known for its friendly staff, relaxing atmosphere and delicious breakfast. Cakes and coffees are recommended. Open from 8am til midnight.

Features:BarCafeFree Wi-FiMusicRestaurant

Kurhaus Korsakow

Grünberger Straße 81, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Kottbusser Tor

Restaurants

Kurhaus Korsakow serves a range of local dishes and popular German cuisine, all in a gay-friendly, rustic setting. Visit over the weekend for a fantastic, all-you-can-eat breakfast buffet.

Features:Restaurant

Sissi

Motzstraße 34, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

Gay-friendly Austrian restaurant in Berlin's gay district, Schöneberg, just around the corner from Mutschmann's and almost next door to Reizbar, MORE, et cetera. Check Sissi's website for menu. Reservations can be made online.

Features:BarCafeRestaurant

Südblock

Admiralstraße 1-2, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

Gay-popular café & snack bar with beer garden in Berlin-Kreuzberg area. In the evening, the venue hosts special events and parties. Mixed/LGBT, international crowd. Südblock also has language club for those who wish to learn to speak German. Open 7 days a week, from 5 PM, and Sundays from 3 PM.

Features: Bar Cafe Music

k-fetisch

Wildenbruchstraße, 12045 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

k-fetisch is a small gay-friendly cafe in Berlin that serves excellent coffee and pastries, as well as beer. The customers are mostly Berlin locals, so it's a perfect place if you want to get away from touristy spots. The ambience is warm and welcoming, making it one of the main highlights of the cafe.

Alaska Bar

Reuterstraße 85, 12053 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

Alaska Berlin is an LGBTQ-friendly vegan restaurant serving a wide range of Spanish tapas. Every item on the menu offers a perfect balance of flavours and comes in generous proportions all for an affordable price. Whether you're a vegan or not, this hidden gem of Neukölln is worth a visit when you're in the area.

Kanaan Berlin

Schliemannstraße 15, 10437 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

Kanaan Berlin is a vegan-vegetarian that serves Middle Eastern and European cuisine. Among the items on the menu are fresh salads, Hummus dishes, veggie-döner and homemade baked goods.

Apart from a mouthwatering menu, the restaurant has owners who are dedicated to creating a safe space for everyone, including LGBTQ+ customers by supporting projects for queer refugees.

Cafe Berio

Maaßenstraße 7, 10777 Berlin, Germany, Berlin, Germany

Restaurants

Cafe Berio is located at the centre of Schöneberg, Berlin's gay neighbourhood. The cafe serves a great selection of coffee, which customers can enjoy with their breakfast, brunch or on a coffee date. Its friendly and inviting atmosphere makes it a popular meeting spot for the local gay and lesbian community.

Oscar Wilde Tours - Germany

Various Locations, Berlin, Germany

Tours

Experience the rich LGBTQ+ history and culture of Germany with Oscar Wilde Tours (a renowned tour operator, see his excellent reviews). Led by Professor Andrew Lear, this tour offers unique insights into famous sights like Neuschwanstein Castle and their often-overlooked LGBTQ+ stories. Enjoy excellent hotels, gourmet food, and the expertise of specially trained local guides.

Tour Dates: October 9-19

Early Booking Discount: $200 through May 31

Discover similar enriching experiences in Italy here and Japan here.

Features: gay history tour

Gay Culinary & Historical Tours Berlin

Berlin, Germany

Tours

Holger offers the perfect start for your unforgettable Berlin experience

Berlin is its own little universe. So many districts and beautiful places to see, so many exciting things to discover, and so much delicious food to explore. And of course an almost uncountable number of gay places, bars and restaurants.

Make the most out of your precious time in the city and get all the info and answers you need at first. It's like you visit a friend who's showing you around his city. I will take you to my most favorite places in the Gay Village of Schöneberg, in the trendy neighborhood in Friedrichshain & Kreuzberg or the fancy and luxurious streets of Mitte & Prenzlauer Berg.

What you will get are all the insights to Berlin's foodie scene from a real Berliner, tons of historical & cultural backgrounds and my personal story of the fall of the wall (yes, I was there!). I've worked for many years as a culinary tour guide for Fork & Walk Tours Berlin - read my F&W reviews at TripAdvisor. :-) Book your private tour with Holger today: tours@queerberlin.com or go through my website link.

Features: bars culture Drinks Food fungay scenegossip Guided tourshistory insights private tours Restaurants

SchwuZ

Rollbergstraße 26, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Rathaus Neukölln
Services

Berlin's LGBT centre that hosts gay parties, concerts and cultural events.

The popular SchwuZ dance party is held every Thursday through Saturday night, from 11pm.

Features: Cafe Information Centre

Sonntags-Club

Greifenhagener Straße 28, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: S,U2: Schönhauser Allee
Services

Sonntags-Club is a non-profit counselling, communication and cultural centre for the Berlin LGBT, located in Prenzlauer Berg. There is an onsite café with with street terrace (open daily from 6pm).

Features: appgay job fair

Mann-O-Meter

Bülowstraße 106, Berlin, Germany

Nearest station: U: Nollendorfplatz
Services

Gay checkpoint, information centre and LGBT counselling service in Berlin. Anonymous HIV and syphilis tests available.

Closed on Mondays.

Sticks & Stones/Proudr

Verti Music Hall Mercedes-Platz 2 10243, Berlin, Germany

Services

Sticks & Stones is an LGBT+ business networking event that's been going for over a decade in Berlin. It brings LGBT+ people and allies together in the business world. It's a fab initiative that removes any lingering doubt you may have applying for a job as an LGBT+ person - all companies represented here will be welcoming.

They also have an app you can download for free called Proudr. It's basically Grindr but for jobs - you better werk.