Butero Bistro

Bracka 3, Warsaw, Poland

Nearest station: Metro Centrum

Bars

A queer space and inclusive bistro serving Esperanto cuisine. Although they have a wide range of alcohol, wine is their main focus. You will find many pieces of LGBTQIA+ art displayed all over the place. In the season they offer outdoor seating in their colourful and quirky garden.

Butero is hidden in the backyard of Bracka Street (follow the rainbow neon) and is open from 3 pm to midnight from Tuesday to Friday, from 11 am to midnight on Saturday and from 11 am to 10 pm on Sunday.

Butero Bistro in Warsaw: A Royal Encounter in a Queer-Friendly Space

Recently, Butero Bistro found itself in the international spotlight. This happened following an impromptu visit by Prince William, who chose this LGBTQIA+-friendly venue for a casual dining experience during his trip to Poland. The event wasn't just a high point for the bistro but also a significant nod to the LGBTQIA+ community in a country where the quest for inclusivity continues.

In a unique twist following Prince William's visit, Butero Bistro has placed the chair used by the Prince up for auction. This isn't just any chair; it's a piece of history, contributing to Poland's largest philanthropic event, Wielka Orkiestra Świątecznej Pomocy. Marked with a simple note reading "PRINCE WILLIAM," the chair serves as a symbol of royal support for the LGBTQIA+ community.

You can now find details about the auction and bid by following this link.
